

Regional Ministerial Conference on Refugee Returns
Sarajevo, January 2005

DECLARATION

We, the ministers responsible for refugees and internally displaced persons in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, and Serbia and Montenegro, met today in Sarajevo to identify our individual and joint activities that should be undertaken in the forthcoming period with the assistance of the international community in order to ensure a just and durable solution to refugee and IDP situation in our countries;

Considering that a just solution to this important issue must primarily be in the interest of safety, dignity and well-being of individuals and peoples, and should also contribute to peace and stability in Southeastern Europe, as well as to the efforts our countries are making to join the EU;

Aware of the fact that getting over the legacy of the war falls within the full normalization of relations between our countries;

Confirming our commitment to implement international conventions on refugee protection, notably the 1951 Refugee Convention and its 1967 Protocol, along with the 1995 General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia-Herzegovina and especially its Annex VII as well as the existing bilateral agreements;

Taking into consideration the progress made over the years in returns between our countries, and aware that outstanding challenges in refugee returns require our cooperation; and fully aware that all refugees have the right to return in safety and dignity;

Reaffirming that all refugees have an undeniable right to opt for their permanent residence, and fully resolved to undertake all the necessary national and administrative actions to allow the implementation of their decisions and to ensure a just solution to refugee situations in our countries,

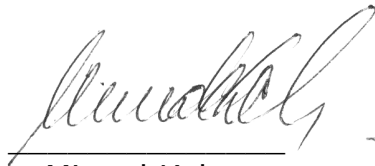

We have agreed as follows:

1. Pursuant to our country programmes, we are committed to solving the remaining population displacement by the end of 2006, to facilitating returns or local integration of refugees and internally displaced persons in our countries, depending on their individual decisions, without any discrimination, and providing assistance and support to refugees and internally displaced persons in cooperation with UNHCR, the EU and OSCE;
2. Access to all rights and entitlements, including the right to accommodation, shall be ensured in a fair and transparent manner, while all social, legal, procedural or any other requirement for the implementation of the above-said shall be met in the spirit of the present Declaration.
3. Without prejudice to the precedence of the right to return, refugees who have chosen not to return will be assisted by their new host countries to locally integrate in accordance with their national legislation.
4. UNHCR, as well as the EU and OSCE are invited to assist our governments in the return process and local integration and to raise financial and other support and assistance from the international community;
5. Upon return or local integration, all refugees shall enjoy the same rights and shall have the same responsibilities as all other citizens, without any discrimination;
6. The above mentioned principles and goals shall serve as a basis for the development of individual action plans ("Road Map") in our countries, including a comprehensive list of all the tasks that must be undertaken and each country shall bear the individual responsibility for the implementation. Those individual plans of activities shall be unified in a joint implementation matrix;
7. Each country shall prepare its own action plan within the next three months. During the same timeframe UNHCR is invited to assist in creating the necessary databases.
8. We commit ourselves to appointing the representatives of the responsible ministries and other relevant bodies, and we invite UNHCR, as well as the European Union and OSCE to appoint their representatives to the Task Force. The Task Force shall meet at least four times a year to:
